Dear Westmount Charter School Families,

You may have heard the recent news about potential teachers' strike action in Alberta, with teachers set to go on strike Monday, October 6, if a deal cannot be reached with the province. I want to reassure you that this does not impact Westmount Charter School.

As a public charter school, Westmount's teachers are not part of a collective bargaining unit with the Alberta Teachers' Association. Any strike action applies only to public school boards whose teachers are represented through collective bargaining.

This means that all classes and school operations at Westmount Charter School will continue as usual.

I hope this clarification provides reassurance for your family. Thank you for your ongoing support and partnership as we continue the school year together.

Sincerely,

Dr. Adriana Klassen
Superintendent
Westmount Charter School
