Elementary Principal Announcement

Karly Bagnall announced as the Elementary Principal of Westmount Charter School.

The Westmount Charter School Board of Directors is pleased to announce Ms. Karly Bagnall as the Elementary Principal effective January 5, 2026.

Ms. Bagnall has been serving in the role of acting principal since mid-June, 2025. Her appointment acknowledges her effectiveness in this role to date and ensures smooth continuation in this key leadership position.

Ms. Bagnall draws on a wealth of experience and expertise. She has been part of the Westmount community for almost two decades, serving in a variety of capacities, including Acting Principal, Acting Assistant Principal, Humanities Learning Leader, Learning Commons Coordinator, and Classroom Teacher (Kindergarten, Grade 1 and Grade 3). She has played an integral role in daily operations, delivery of curricula, admissions, teacher mentorship, professional learning, and student support. Ms. Bagnall displays a deep understanding of Inside Out and has thoroughly integrated its principles into her teaching and leadership practice. She is known for her exceptional organizational skills, deep commitment to inclusive education, and strong interpersonal leadership style.

Ms. Bagnall holds a Master of Education in Educational Studies and a Graduate Certificate in School Leadership from the University of Alberta. She is a recipient of the 2025 Alberta Distinguished Leadership Award and holds Alberta Leadership Certification.

We look forward to her continued contributions and leadership as Westmount Elementary's principal.

Please join us in congratulating Ms. Bagnall!
